Collection notice

The Tax Institute (TTI) complies with its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) with respect to how it handles personal information. TTI collects, uses, holds and discloses your personal information (including sensitive information, such as health information) for a range of purposes, such as administrative purposes relating to membership of TTI and TTI's courses (including assessment of eligibility and providing courses), compliance with Government and statutory requirements, provision of information relating to TTI's services and member benefits and to conduct market research. If you do not provide the personal information requested by TTI, it may not be able to provide its services to you, such as assessment of your course enrolment application. TTI does not disclose criminal record information to third parties. TTI usually discloses your personal information to entities such as your sponsoring employer (with respect to your course records and results), The Tax Practitioners Board, TTI's business partners for marketing purposes, IT companies and other companies who provide administrative and other services to TTI and government bodies, such as the Tertiary Education and Quality Standards Agency. TTI may disclose personal information to overseas recipients in countries such as the United States of America and India. For further information on how TTI collects, uses, holds and discloses personal information, please see its privacy policy at www.taxinstitute.com.au. The Privacy Policy also contains information on how to request access to or correction of your personal information and how to make a complaint about a breach of privacy. By submitting your application to TTI, you confirm that you have read TTI's Privacy Policy and you consent to your personal information being collected, used and held by TTI and disclosed to third parties as set out in this notice and in accordance with TTI's Privacy Policy. If you do not want your personal information to be used by TTI or disclosed to third parties, for the purpose of direct marketing, please contact us in writing at membership@taxinstitute.com.au.
